Diversity is a self-paced course designed to provide nurses with the opportunity to learn cultural competence through self-assessment, interaction, and skill development in order to improve their effectiveness as nurses, as employees, and in their own personal relationships.

Course Authors

This course was developed by the National Council of State Boards of Nursing (NCSBN) based on content written by Linda L. Blair, RN, MEd, BSN and Tonnie L. Renfro, PhD, MBA.

Who Should Take This Course

This program is for every nurse (PN/VNs and RNs) in every practice setting at every level of practice.

Identify

personal beliefs and attitudes related to diversity.

Compare

the cultural composition of the United States today to projections for the future.

Determine

the characteristics of cultural competence in a health care setting and the cultural practices that may influence health care for various populations.

Recognize

cultural, religious, gender and relationship diversity issues that must be considered in meeting client and family needs.
